

Annex D: Illustration of the Gaps in the Suspension Period

Illustration #1: Offender is convicted, but sentence and disqualification order commence at later date.	 Date of conviction: TP's suspension automatically lapses by law Date of suspension Current gap: Offender can drive Date of commencement of imprisonment term. Offender has been convicted with 6 months imprisonment and DQ order of 1 year starting from date of release from prison. Offender requested a deferment of sentence. Court granted leave.
Illustration #2: Offender was convicted but filed an appeal.	 Date of conviction: TP's suspension automatically lapses by law Date of suspension Current gap: Offender can drive Date of commencement of imprisonment Offender has been convicted with 6 months imprisonment and DQ order of 1 year. Offender appealed against conviction, sentence and DQ order. Appeal matter heard in court Conviction upheld. Imprisonment starts on the next day. DQ order to commence on date of release.